- Include the photographers name or URL in our file names or image titles
- Share our post via social media at least once, including but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram&Pinterest
- Select B.LOVED content is also shared via Aisle Society, where your work will be appropriately credited. You will be notified if your work is shared and be invited to sign up for a vendor account – a great additional way to get your brand in front of style conscious brides.
- Pinterest links will include the photographer's business name or URL
- Suppliers will be tagged in all social media posts, providing the relevant handles have been provided
- All suppliers are entitled to a 'featured on' badge on request

All of this means that we can shout about you and promote you. We also encourage you to share the post via your own social media channels – we notice a substantial increase in post interaction, engagement and views when you do this, meaning more readers will see your work and increase your chances for enquiries.

A NOTE ON EXCLUSIVITY: We work hard to curate beautiful exclusive content for our readers. By sharing your work on BLOVED you agree not to submit the same images to any other online blog or website (except for sneak peeks on your own website or blog) within 8 weeks of the feature, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Likewise, if your work has already been submitted or featured elsewhere we expect full disclosure at this time, and will use our own discretion whether to accept the feature. Thank you so much for your understanding.
